Gilgasmesh, also known as Gilgasmesh "The Mountain" was a witcher, belonging to the first generation of witchers created in the School of the Manticore. Son of Hilis, one of the dukes of Vinland, he would be taken by Iwan, as his reward, after claiming the Law of Surprise from the duke, having saved him from being stepped on by a mammoth during a diplomatic mission of the Zerrikanian court to the duchy. Being just a baby, with no name, when that happened. Giving the name of Gilgasmesh, in honor of a zerrikanian mythical hero.

Characterized by his honesty and humility, he would be sent by Iwan himself, during his youth, to help the people of the Okami Islands deal with their monster problems along with a group of 10 witchers. He eventually stayed, and founded the School of the Dragon, after killing an Eastern Dragon and making a deal with the emperor himself. It is said that he invited him to dinner, being the first foreigner to be present at the imperial court.

In reality, however, this was a hidden exile, driven by the Zerrikanian Royal Court, for unknown reasons. Although some speculate that it was because of the refusal to train women in the school. Being Gilgasmesh, and the 10 other witchers who accompanied him, part of the faction that refused the before mentioned.
